

MAJ. SCHROEDER READY TO GO

AFTER MAKING NEW ALTITUDE
RECORD, FALLS FIVE MILES
AND LANDS SAFELY—UN-CONSCIOUS, BLIND.

By the Associated Press
DAYTON, O., Feb. 28.—Major R. W. Schroeder, chief test pilot who yesterday fell more than five miles in 2 minutes after shattering the world's altitude record miraculously escaping death, lies today in the army post hospital near here recovering from partial blindness and determined to make another ascent the first opportunity.

Major Schroeder, climber to the height of 36,020 feet then plunged downward more than five miles when he lost control of his machine after his oxygen supplies were exhausted. While still 20,000 feet above the ground the aviator regained his presence of mind righted the plane and sailed down to a graceful landing on McCook field.

When attendants rushed to the machine after he had landed, they found him sitting erect in his plane blinded and unconscious. His eye balls had been frozen, the temperature at the height to which he had ascended being approximately 67 degrees below zero.

The mark set by Major Schroeder again gives him a record which Rohlf made on July 30, 1919 at an official altitude of 30,300 feet and later increased to 31,000 feet. It also breaks the records of Adjutant Castle, a French pilot who was credited with an unofficial record of 33,137 feet.

"Wild Cat" Oil Men
Use Novel Plans to Catch the Suckers

By the Associated Press
TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 28.—Many novel schemes in the promotion of "wild cat" oil development companies have been discovered by the investigators working under the "blue sky" division of the state banking department but what investigators claim to be the prize winner of these was recently disclosed at Pittsburg, in which the leading role was taken by a "seer." Following the dictates of the "seer," it is said, $150,000 has been invested in oil leases and well digging in the Texas field.

"The proposition as promulgated by the 'seer' has been very successful from the financial standpoint of the 'seer' who is said to have been remunerated handsomely for her guidance to seekers of wealth," said an agent for the department who recently conducted an investigation of the "seer's" enterprises.

"She has had a number of trances which resulted in generous investments by the faithful. She would go into a trance in which she claimed was made known to her the exact location of certain lands in the Burk Burnett fields in Texas, on which oil could be found. Trance No. 1 resulted in the purchase of a lease on two acres for $30,000. Oil was found on this tract, which was in proven territory. The woman later had four more trances, each specifying land on which oil could be found. Her agents in each instance procured leases on the designated lands and they let a few of their friends—about fifty in all—in on the road to wealth. But some of the investors became skeptical. They appear to have strayed from the road to certain wealth, and want their money back.

"The department still has the matter under advisement as to future action."

Had to Buy Homes Or Leave Pittsburg Investigation Shows

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 28.—More than 60,000 Pittsburgh families bought their homes during the past year, not because they were particularly anxious to own their own homes, but according to real estate men, they had to buy or move. This is continuing at the same rate thus far this year.

The home buying movement began two years ago when war activities in the mills brought scores of families into a community where housing accommodations had been increasingly scarce for a number of years. Cost of construction increased and this curtailed building operations.

Rents have increased in proportion, small houses and apartments showing the highest per centage. Fifty per cent raises for the coming year are said to be common, while in some instances 100 per cent has been asked and paid where the occupant could afford it. "The demand is here and the living places are not" is the way one real estate man explained the situation.

Similar conditions prevail throughout the Pittsburgh district. In some manufacturing towns industrial corporations are building and buying houses for their men, while in Sharon, Pa., the Chamber of Commerce has undertaken to finance the construction of 500 residences.

LAWMAKERS PASS SUFFRAGE BILL

EMERGENCY IS NOT ATTACHED
AND INITIATIVE MEASURE POSSIBLE. ADJOURNMENT
MAY BE DELAYED

By the Associated Press
Oklahoma City, Feb. 28.—The house of Representatives in the special session of Oklahoma legislature today passed a resolution ratifying the woman suffrage amendment by a vote of 76 to 4 with 24 not voting. Ratification of the woman's suffrage amendment will be completed when Governor Robertson places his signature on the resolution which he is expected to do late this afternoon.

Declaring it impossible to get the thirty votes necessary to pass the suffrage resolution with the emergency clause which would have placed it beyond the reach of a referendum, Bert S. Hodges of Okmulgee, suffrage leader in the house, moved that the house concur in the resolutions as passed by the senate without the emergency clause.

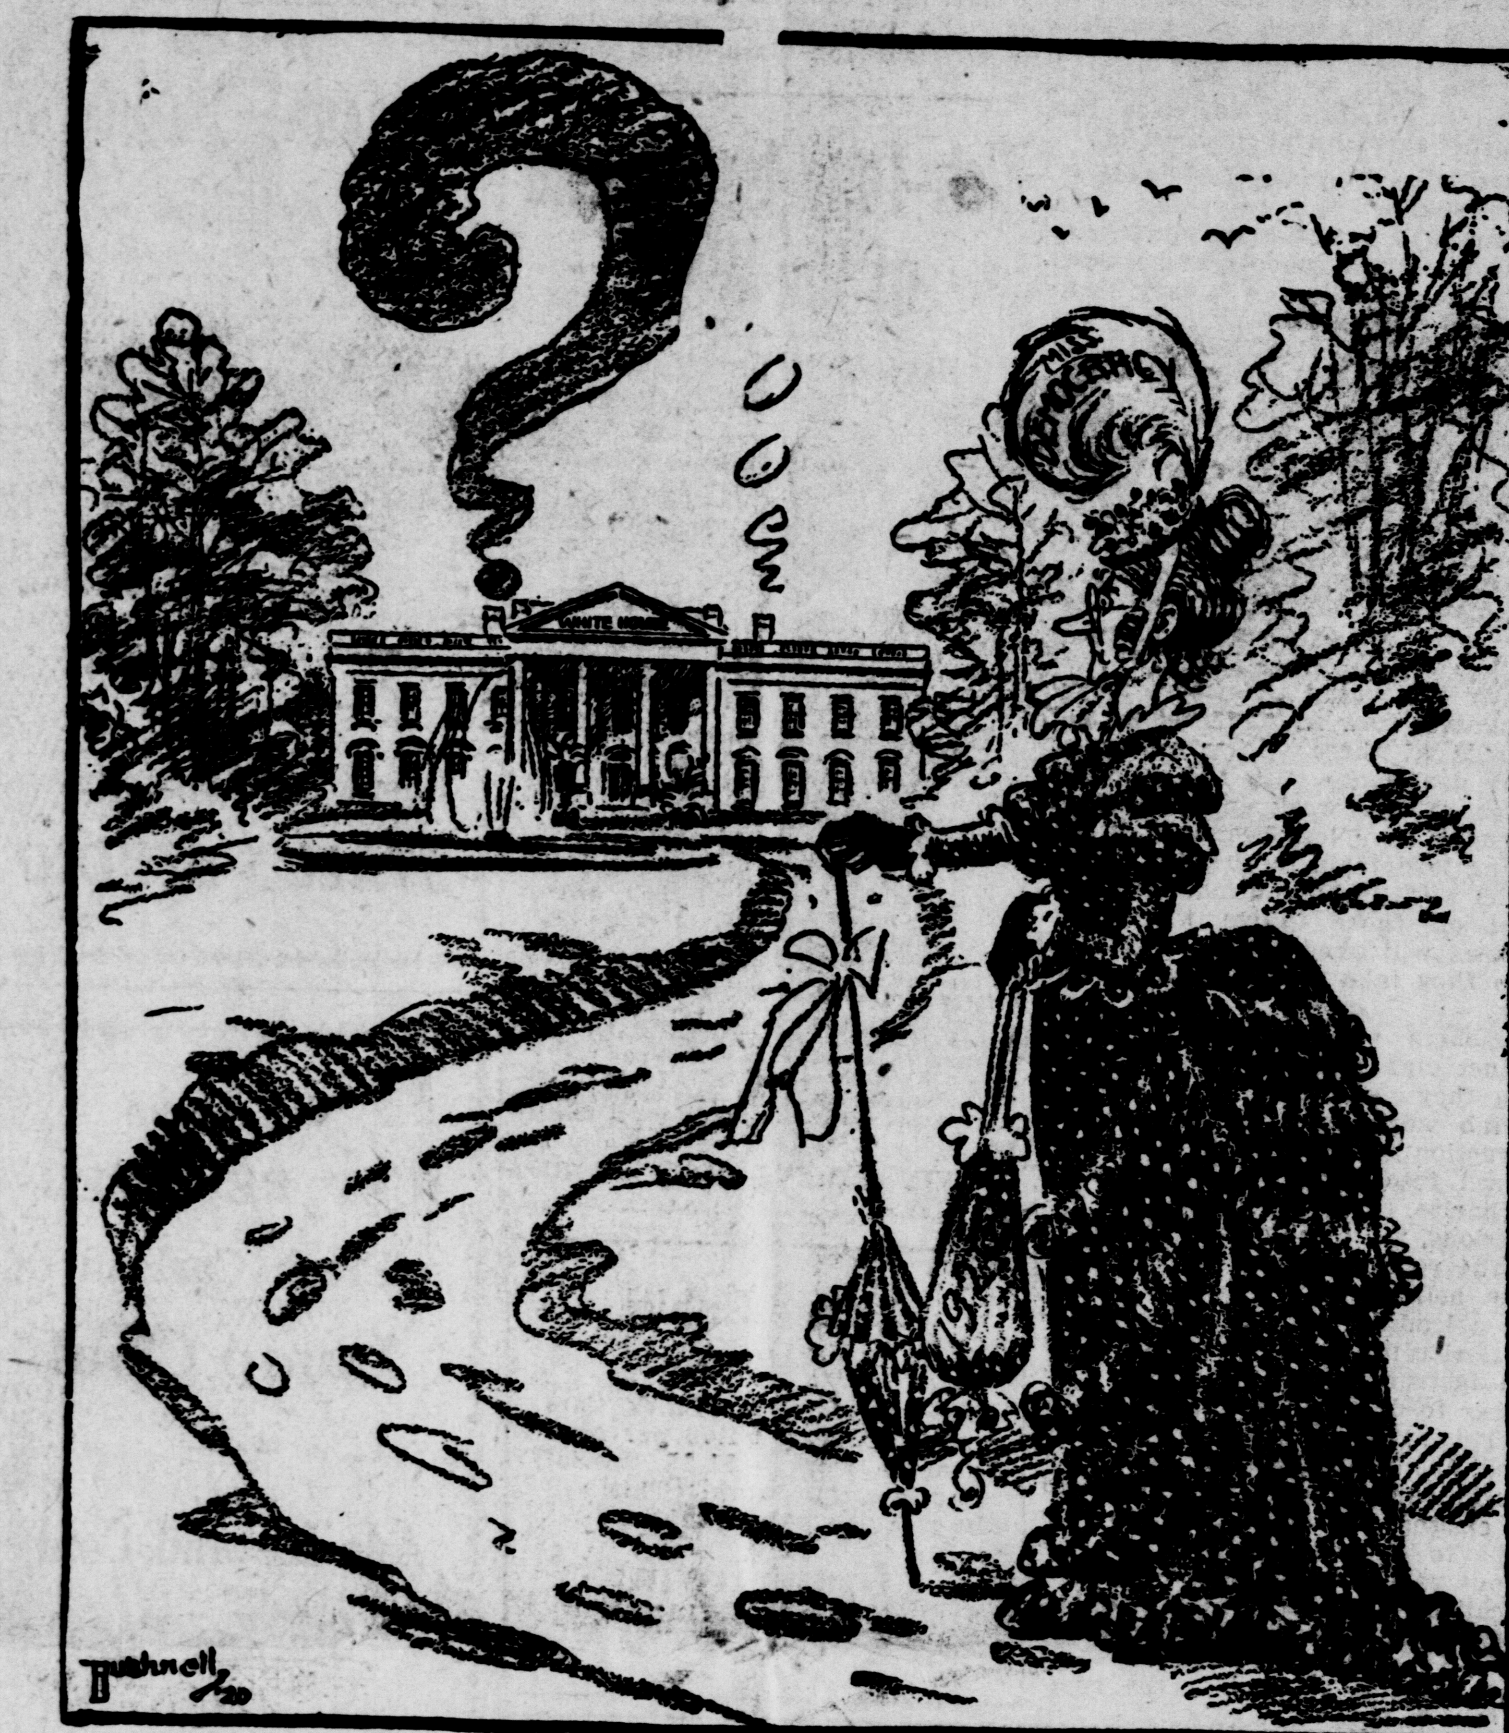

Consideration of the deficiency appropriation measure calling for the expenditures of more than $500,000 occupied the greater part of the morning session in the house and was still in progress when the noon recess was reached.

The senate transacted virtually no business. The house resolution fixing 6:00 o'clock as the time for adjournment of the special session was not to be considered in the senate until after submission to the house of the representatives of the committee report on the charges by Campbell Russell relative to the pardon and parole department.

The vote on the senate resolution came shortly after the house met and was preceded by but little debate. The four votes in opposition to acceptance of the senate resolution were cast by representative C. T. Johnson, J. W. Kenton, Lon Morris and Porter Newman, Democrats.

MISS COLE ACQUITTED OF ASSAULT CHARGES

ALLEN, Okla., Feb. 27.—Special to News)—Miss Willie Cole, of Ada, Oklahoma, who is now teaching school at Allen, was acquitted today in the Justice Court at Allen of the assault and battery charges preferred against her by H. A. Hicks of Allen, in one of the most sensational lawsuits ever held here. Some twenty witnesses were subpoenaed and a large crowd was in attendance at the trial.

After the case was tried, the jury was out for less than five minutes before returning their verdict, and when it was rendered, the verdict was cheered by the crowd in attendance.

Miss Cole was charged with assault and battery committed on Mae Hicks, the nine year old daughter of H. A. Hicks, and was exonerated before the trial of the criminal charge by the school board and County Superintendent.

Attorneys for the MacThwaite Co. Explain Lawsuit

Ada, Oklahoma, February 28, 1920.
To the News:

Complying with your request to Mr. Offutt; we are herewith giving you the facts in regard to the article that appeared in the News on the 26th inst. under the headline "State Supreme Court Sustains Injunction against MacThwaite". We wish to say at the outset that we are not in the habit of trying our lawsuits through the column of the newspapers, and it is only at your request that this statement is submitted.

The Supreme Court did not sustain an injunction against the company, nor did the company arbitrarily raise its rates in Ada. The company made application to the Corporation Commission for an order authorizing it to raise its rates. A hearing was had at which the City of Ada, The Chamber of Commerce and the citizens had due and ample notice and were ably represented by Mr. J. W. Dean, Mr. J. F. McKeel, possibly Mr. Ratliff, and others whose names we now fail to recall after a full hearing the commission made its order of date November 20, 1918, authorizing the raise in rates. Petition for rehearing was filed before the commission by the attorneys representing the city, the industrial consumers and others. This petition was overruled on December 8, 1918. On December 14, 1918, Mayor Kitchens, acting for the city of Ada, filed petition in the district court, among other things asking that the franchise of the company be forfeited and that the company be restrained from putting into effect the rates fixed by order of the Corporation Commission.

Without notice to the company or its attorneys, a restraining order, (not an injunction) was made by Judge Bolen temporarily restraining the company from putting such rates into effect and hearing on said petition was set for December 28, 1918. On the 17th day of December, 1918, we filed a demurrer to the petition and challenged the jurisdiction of the district court to hear and determine the matter raised in the petition of the city. This was overruled, also motion to dissolve temporary restraining order was overruled. Then, before the time set for the hearing, on to-wit: the 23rd day of December, 1918, we filed an original petition in the supreme court, asking that that court issue its writ of prohibition, prohibiting Judge Bolen from in any way exercising jurisdiction in the case before him. PANAMA STRIKE IS CALLED OFF TODAY

By the Associated Press
PANAMA, Feb. 28.—Indications are today that the strike of 15,000 wage workers in the Panama Canal zone was over for the time being at least. It was announced by British officers that the leaders of the strikers union had acceded to his offer to act as manager between the men and Governor Harding of the Canal Zone and the men in the meantime had agreed to return to work at noon today.

FRENCH FACING TRIUP IN ALL RAILROADS

By the Associated Press
PARIS, Feb. 28.—Orders for general railroad strike have been issued by the national federation of railroad men. Reports were current last night that this action had been taken but confirmation could not be obtained until late this afternoon.

General railroads throughout France were considered near a crisis this morning and belief was expressed that a breakdown of the strike or partially paralysis of the nation's railroad systems would come to a crisis during the day.

Barnard Shaw Says We Should Build New Houses Every 20 Yrs.

By the Associated Press
LONDON, Feb. 27.—George Barnard Shaw declares that the old cottages of England should be destroyed wholesale.

"After living in one of these 'literary and artistic' houses with an exalted sense of doing the right thing," he told the Society of Arts recently "one realizes that all the time one has been living in a sort of architectural hell."

"I am so far modern that I have come to the conclusion that what is wanted is a law that every building should be knocked down at the end of 20 years, and a new one erected. That would get rid of old cottages. We have got into the incorrigible habit of sponging on the past."

"Every generation ought to be able to produce its own art and all this worship of the past can only be got rid of by a wholesale destruction of all the monuments of the past."

"If we could avoid the wholesale destruction of human beings involved by a great war, I should be glad to have half a dozen great wars in Europe so that all the old buildings might be knocked down, thus forcing us by a sort of starvation to make our own architectural efforts."

AMERICAN CONSUL KILLED IN MEXICO

AUGUSTUS MORRILL, WHO HAS

FOREIGN SERVICE LONG TIME MEETS DEATH

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Augustus Morrill, formerly American consul at Manzanillo, Mexico, was killed by Mexican bandits February 26. The present consul at Manzanillo, in his report to the state department, said Mr. Morrill was attacked while on his way to his home three miles from Colima and that in a fusillade of pistol shots he received two wounds.

The American embassy at Mexico City has been instructed to make urgent representations of the Mexican Government looking to the arrest and punishment of the murderers, and the American consul at Manzanillo has been instructed to make similar representations to the local Mexican authorities.

Mr. Morrill is survived by a widow who is 80 years old and several children who live at San Francisco, Oakland and Raphael, Cal. He was appointed vice consul at Manzanillo, January 26, 1869, and was made consul on August 5, 1872.

WELCOMES CHANCE.

By the Associated Press
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Warrants for the arrest of William Harrison (Jack Dempsey) heavy weight champion of the world and Jack Kerns, his manager, were in the hands of the United States Marshall today.

An indictment charging Dempsey and Kerns with conspiring to evade the draft law was returned by the federal grand jury yesterday. A second indictment returned at the same time charged that Dempsey had actually evaded the law.

When and where the warrants would be served had not been announced early today. Dempsey and Kerns were in Los Angeles last night and Kerns was quoted as saying they had made no plans for coming to San Francisco.

"I am glad the indictments have been filed because it means Jack and I will have an opportunity to vindicate ourselves and put an end to the gossip about us which has been in circulation for the last few weeks," he added.

Dempsey was charged with having falsely stated to the draft board that his wife had lived with him for 18 months previous to his appearance before the board and that his parents and a widower and sister had made their home with him for four years.

Bullock for Mayor

To the Voters of the City of Ada:

At the earnest solicitation of my friends I am announcing as a candidate for the office of Mayor at the coming City primary.

I have very little time to devote to an active campaign and hence am depending upon my friends to interest themselves in my behalf and for their active support and influence I will be indeed grateful.

The qualifications and political record of every candidate for Mayor are well known to the people of Ada.

In the short time at my disposal before the primary it will be impossible for me to meet many of the voters personally but I am willing to submit my cause to their sober, considerate judgment and cheerfully abide the result, whatever that may be.

In conclusion let me say that I am for Ada, first, last and all the time. I believe in her people and in her destiny. If, by your votes you should elect me to the office of Mayor, I will, to the very best of my ability, stand for honest, economical, clean administration of city affairs.

TEACHING THE OKLA. TEACHERS TO TEACH

PRATT MAKES A HARD TASK EASY FOR THE COUNTRY SCHOOL MARMS SAYS THE OKLAHOMA FARMER

From Oklahoma Farmer:

For more than 10 years we have been trying to formulate a system of agricultural instruction for the farm boys and girls that would vitalize their tasks at home and at school by bringing the school work to bear on those eminently real and material things that they meet in their daily lives. We have tried to knock a lot of the dream stuff out of the courses and let the schools tell the naked truth about life and its problems, so that students will not be deceived by the glittering lights of the city nor misled regarding the possibilities and limitations of life in the open country. Perhaps we have been a little impatient in this. Large pieces of machinery have been set in motion and immense quantities of material have been accumulated, without a corresponding effort being made to mass the machinery into a gigantic unit or to systematize the material for efficient use.

Teachers who have received little training in some phases of the work have made a sincere effort to give instruction in the fundamentals of country life and the business of farming, often without any knowledge of how such things work out in practice. For this reason rural teachers have generally not felt competent to take the lead in things agricultural outside of the school room.

Better Co-operation is Needed

As an entirely different unit of the machinery we have the extension division of the United States Department of Agriculture and the Agricultural and Mechanical college which carries to the schools other courses of instruction based on practical work in the field. These courses are only remotely connected with the courses outlined for the regular school work so that confusion is likely to result. All have realized that the public school must be made the basis for work of this character and altho an effort has been made to do this, teachers have often not understood the methods and purposes of the field forces and some of the field forces have not understood how they could adjust their work to that of the schools.

The instruction in agriculture given in the teachers' training course at the East Central Normal School at Ada, Okla., appears to be drawing the school room instruction and the field instruction a little closer together. B. A. Pratt, who is at the head of this department is not afraid of the practical phases of the farming business. In fact the course is based on the common, everyday problems that the teachers are finding out in the rural communities in their everyday work. Mr. Pratt is a graduate of the Kansas Agricultural college and has had a lot to do with schools and practical agriculture. He is eminently able to take the lead, as he evidently is doing, in helping to correlate the work of agricultural instruction.

Course Fits Teachers for Leaders

The course assumes that the teachers will have certain conditions to meet in their schools. It assumes that these conditions will vary some but that fundamentally they are much the same. For the most part the folks make their living by growing crops and livestock and the things of most importance are things relating to the soils, the crops and the livestock. Other agencies operating in the same community and having for their object the same thing, namely, the improvement of soils, crops, and livestock, are the boys' and girls' clubs and the agricultural fairs.

It is Mr. Pratt's belief that teachers should know about the plans and methods of these other agencies which deal more with the practical phases of the work in order that they may have less hesitancy in assuming leadership in such activities. So the work in the normal course is based on those things which the teachers will need to know and do when they take up the rural school work.

Teachers will probably need to conduct club work in their schools. Then they must know the methods of club work and the character of instruction given. So they are organized into clubs and required to familiarize themselves with the instructions, write the essays and make out the reports. Especially does Mr. Pratt believe that teachers should take a leading part in the community agricultural fair. So he gives such instruction as will enable the teacher to do creditable work in any department of it. Teachers might be called upon to render assistance in selecting and preparing exhibits. So the classes are sent out into the fields to make selections of the various grains and seed. They might be called upon to do the judging at their fair therefore, they are taught to judge grains, poultry and livestock as it is done at the community and township fairs and are prepared to discuss such things intelligently with the farmers.

Teachers Like New Plan
The course is an attempt to take agriculture out of the textbooks and out of the school room and place it in the community. That it is having something of this effect is evidenced by the fact that teachers who return to the normal after a term in a rural school, where they have had an opportunity to try this method of teaching agriculture, are hungry for more of the course.

Mr. Pratt is recognized as a leader by the farmers of Pontotoc county. He is secretary of the Pontotoc county livestock and seed association and secretary of the county free fair association. This furnishes many opportunities to keep in touch with the trend of agricultural affairs thru out the county and opens up a large field for class work outside "Its province of Quebec is now a still more popular resort for Americans suffering from thirst."

"Though next door neighbors and rivals in business and, what is still more trying, near relatives, Canada and the United States are the best of friends."

"For over a hundred years there has not been so much as a picket fence or a policeman, much less a patrol or a fortification, on the border line between the two countries."

"Canada has not, like her sister Columbia, 'severed home ties'; she is perfectly happy under the parental roof, earns her own living, has a latch key and stays out as late as she please and has never been able to understand 'why girls leave home.'"

"Though differing in many respects, the United States and Canada have so much in common and are so nearly of the same age and size that in any musical comedy of Nations, the two might easily pass for a 'sister turn.'"

Preferential Primary In Michigan Makes a Keen Political Issue

By the Associated Press

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 28.—Although the strictly partisan feature has to some extent been removed from the Michigan presidential preference primary by the ruling of the state's attorney general that the law promises to be unusually keen among political managers.

In some political circles it is believed that Michigan may develop into a "pivotal" state. Michigan, it is claimed will be the first "big" state to hold its preference primary and the instructions it gives its 30 delegates to the national convention, it is held, may become a factor when the nominating bodies meet this summer. There are earlier primaries in other states, but the delegations they send to the national conventions are smaller than Michigan's.

The instructions given in the primary to Michigan's delegation however, may not be carried out beyond the first ballot. On this ballot the delegation will vote as a unit. Should the first ballot yield no nomination, the delegation may feel that its obligation has been discharged and swing to some other candidate. The hint rule, too, would then be inoperative.

Michigan's delegates to the convention will be named after the primary. Four delegates at large and alternates, will be named at the party conventions, while 26 will be chosen by the 13 congressional district conventions.

Both parties are expected to send a number of women delegates to the national conventions.

END OF EIGHT YEARS MISERY

Used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Recovered.

Newark, N. J.—"The doctor said I had an organic trouble and treated me for several weeks. At times I could not walk at all and I suffered with my back and limbs so I often had to stay in bed. I suffered off and on for eight years. Finally I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was a good medicine and tried it with splendid effect. I can now do my housework and my washing. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound and your Blood Medicine and three of my friends are taking them to advantage. You can use my name for a testimonial."

Mrs. THAMASA COVATTA, 76 Burnett St., Newark, N. J.

You are invited to write for free advice. No other medicine has been so successful in relieving woman's suffering as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Women may receive free and helpful advice by writing the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Such letters are received and answered by women only and held in strict confidence.

Shivering and Ragged Were Forced to Steal Account Indolent Dad

By the Associated Press

DALLAS Texas, Feb. 28.—Two little girls, shivering in ragged dresses were arrested here for burglary, committed, they said, to keep their unemployed father from "scolding" their hard-working mother when there was not enough food in the house for him.

The father according to officers, had not worked for some time and spent his time at home "tolling in an arm chair, smoking cigars and growling about the government". He was taken into custody, despite his plea of an "independent income" and was held on charge of vagrancy and contribution to the delinquency of his minor children.

The girls, aged ten and twelve, it was alleged, entered the home of a neighbor at night and, passing up money, stole bacon, eggs and cocoa from the ice chest.

"Mother works and earns ten dollars a week," the eldest child said, according to Sam Mimms, truant officer. "Father has not worked for four months. He says he can't get a job. He talks something fierce to mother when there is not enough for him to eat. So we thought we would go out and steal something to keep mother from a scolding."

Babies in France To Be Named For Saints Hereafter

PARIS, Feb. 27.—Babies born in France in war time or since have received many topical names, for the most part ugly and incongruous. An appeal has now been issued that this custom cease, and that the ordinary christian names, drawn from the Calendar of Saints, should once more become universal throughout the country. Among the names given to some of the unfortunate children born during the war, Joffrette and Joffrette are common. A father of Bordeaux was anxious to christen his daughter Ravanche and this name was also suggested by an inhabitant of Montreuil for his son. Place names, such as Namur, Liege, Le Marne, Alsace, Lorraine, Mulhouse, Verdun and Salonique are also now quite usual. As for the Frances and the Victorics, it should be difficult to count them.

One father wanted to name his son Rintintin, after one of the mascots, Nenette and Rintintin, sold during the war. The registry clerk, luckily for the unfortunate child, refused to register such a name, as in France the only christian names which are recognized by the law are those which appear in the Calendar of Saints. A campaign is now being organized for the strict enforcement of the law.

KEYNOTE OF PROSPERITY

The Steelville, Mo., Mirror, writes an editorial that has more boiled-down, hard-headed Common-sense, than we have seen in many a day:

Lumber mills out on the Pacific Coast are closing down because of shortage of cars for shipment of the product. Now think what follows: Because the men are thrown out of employment, their wages are cut off, and they cannot buy as freely as usual of food and clothing and luxuries. Because the lumber is not available to builders, construction work must be cut down, carpenters and other workmen thrown out of work and their wages cut off, with consequent limitation of buying. Every cessation of work has a bad influence both direct and indirect, whatever the cause. The steel strike threw many besides the strikers out of employment. The coal strike stopped many an industry. Increased purchases of foreign goods in 1913-14 threw a corresponding number of American workmen out of jobs, with a long train of demoralizing effects which would have been disastrous if the outbreak of the war had not cut off imports and provided an abnormal market for our products. Continuous employment in useful industry is the only key to permanent prosperity for all. For the want of cars, many a man is idle, and yet the Railroad Administration claims that it has kept up the equipment of the railroads.

POOR RICH INDIAN

Poor rich Jackson Barnett! Had a wife and couldn't keep her! There is something humorously tragic (if you will allow the comparison) about the strange case of the man the government has adopted.

Jackson, the aged Indian millionaire, who has so much money he can't spend any of it and whose likes and dislikes must be passed on by a board of censors has run afoul of a matrimonial reef. He's been eloped with by a female Loch-invar who claims that her extreme love for her decrepit husband outweighs all the money she hopes to get.

The government through the Indian agency is making a great ado about it and for that matter is acting just like it should in protecting one of its wards but after all, as a matter of human life and happiness why shouldn't the two be left mated.

Jackson has won more with his money in this case than he could ever hope to otherwise. He's got himself a sprightly stepper that will make life at least a thing of thrills for the once anyway. Jackson's not long away from the happy hunting grounds and his money is his own even though he doesn't know how to run a bank with it.

Jackson and Omar Khayyam aren't so far apart in their philosophies. Omar you remember opines that it doesn't matter so much about unborn tomorrows and dead yesterdays if today be sweet.—McAlester News-Capital.

SHIPOWNERS TYRANNIZED

General Manager Haines of the Pacific Steamship Company of Seattle recently told the Senate committee on Commerce that shipowners do not run the ships any longer but the Seaman's unions run them under the provisions of the LaFollette Seaman's Act.

He told how one man of a crew at Astoria held up a ship ready to sail and made the government lose $5,000 by delay and time it took to replace the man who under the law could quit after signing for the trip.

The law requires that fifty per cent of the wages due must be paid every five days on demand and an American ship was shanghaied and tied up for five days and put in quarantine because men refused to obey shore leave orders.

Under the La Follette law 75 per cent of the crew must speak English and hence crews for American vessels cannot be maintained in foreign waters where only Chinese, Malays, Lascars and Filipinos are obtainable as sailors or can endure the climate.

Now the crews go a step farther and will not sail unless the officers belong to officers union. Haines showed that only the government could operate ships hereafter under subsidies falling upon the taxpayers, as ship owners had no right to handle their own vessels.

Spit on the sidewalk, or the wall of a business house if you want to, but scatter it. That's the slogan of the tobacco chewers of this section.

INCOME TAX FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

The income-tax law allows a person, in figuring his 1919 net income, to take credit for contributions made during that year to organizations conducting charitable, scientific, educational and religious work; to societies for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals; also to the special fund authorized by the vocational rehabilitation act.

Before claiming any deduction under this provision of the law a taxpayer should carefully consider what is allowable. There should be no guesswork or estimates or setting down a lump sum, but the taxpayer should show only the contributions as he made them and as he can substantiate them. Care should be taken that amounts given to individuals are not included and that the deduction is confined strictly to donations during the year to organizations operated without benefit to the persons interested in the institution would not be a deductible item.

All donations to churches are deductible, including those for missionary funds, church building funds, pew rents, and church assessments and church dues.

Political Contributions
The taxpayer should be careful to omit any claim for contributions to funds gathered for propaganda and political purposes. The allowable deductions are definitely limited by law to organizations operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, educational, or religious purposes, for vocational rehabilitation and for the prevention of cruelty to children and animals.

After listing his contributions of an allowable nature, the taxpayer should see that he does not claim an amount over the limit established by law, which is 15 per cent of the year's net income, computed without the benefit of this deduction.

Contributions may be made in cash or other property; if other than cash, the value of the property must be accurately determined. Subscriptions or promises to contribute should not be considered, the allowance providing only for contributions actually made.

Members of a partnership may deduct their proportionate share of the partnership's contributions. But a partner is limited to 15 per cent of his net income on his total contribution deduction.

The State Press

Shawnee News: Wonder if it gets on Senator Newberry's nerves to see his phiz in the rogues' gallery of the newspapers every day?

Durant Democrat: Time changes. A few years ago, it was always impossible to get the business streets of the city paved, and now the business men are heartily in favor of paving the alleys.

Ardmoreite: The Hon. Al Jennings is advertising himself as "the most famous of modern bandits—a real Jean Valjean." We don't quite see the connection. Al Jean Valjean was sent to prison for stealing a loaf of bread.

Muskogee Phoenix: The body of an editor has been found in the Danube river near Budapest weighted down with rocks. Served him right. Any man who wastes his time editing a newspaper when he might make good wages working as a janitor should be drowned.

Oklahoma City Times: Charles M. Schwab continues to forecast an era of prosperity, which he believes will be enhanced by the return of the railroads to their owners. That renewals, repairs and extensions contemplated by the railroads insure unprecedented prosperity for the steel interests, there is little doubt. Perhaps that is what Mr. Schwab sees most distinctly. But improved transportation facilities will tend to stimulate all lines of business. Certainly there is no question that there will be work for all, but it is equally important that all should work—that production should increase—if this prosperity is to be of real benefit to the general public.

temporary writ of prohibition was issued by the Supreme Court, which writ prohibition him from making any further orders in the case or giving force or effect to the temporary restraining order theretofore issued.

No injunction either temporary or permanent was ever issued by the district court of Pontotoc County. The Supreme Court decided that we were wrong in our contention and that the district court could hear and determine the issues raised and to be raised between the city of Ada on the one hand and the company on the other, and that we had a right to appeal therefrom if we saw fit. But no question as to whether the company is right or wrong has been decided either by the Supreme Court or the District Court of Pontotoc County.

As the matter now stands the issues between the city and the company will be tried out in the district court. What the result will be we do not know, and it is not proper that we should know.

Ada Playhouses

The Liberty

The last day to see the Rainbow Girls, singers, dancers and comedians, and novelty harp playing. Come and see "Rastus" and "Lisa", black-face comedians, that keep you laughing all the time.

The screen programme today consists of Cleo Madison, one of the most beautiful actresses on the screen, in "The Great Radium Mystery". Also a Century Comedy, "Good Little Brownie".

Coming Monday, Happy Klark's Lively Lassies. A clean show that you will want to bring mother, sister or sweetheart to see.

The American

The screen today at the American offers beautiful Margarita Fisher in "Trixie From Broadway". In which she shows that a modern chorus girl may have a "good old-fashioned" heart regardless of her modern costume. Featuring a chorus direct from Broadway, a picture that everyone will enjoy and that will keep you smiling as Margarita Fisher as "Trixie" knows how to smile herself as well as keep others smiling. Coming Monday and Tuesday, "Yankee Doodle in Berlin."

WOMEN ORGANIZE TO CUT H. C. L. BY BUYING ON THE BUDGET SYSTEM

given out at this time. The campaign is a direct result of a mass meeting of Connecticut women held at Hartford a short time ago. At this meeting Mrs. H. W. Fleck was appointed chairman of the committee for Fairfield county. Mrs. Fleck has headed every important woman's committee since the formation of the local red cross chapter some three years ago. She is wide awake and enthusiastic worker and possesses a rare gift of organization ability. Mrs. Frank L. Wilder, wife of Judge Frank L. Wilder of the city court, is also a member of the committee. She is an active worker for the civic betterment of the city and state. She will look after the work in Bridgeport.

An educational campaign will be launched in a short time and will be carried on in the theaters, schools, factories, lodges and at all public gatherings. There will be a "flying squadron" of men and women speakers something on the order of the four-minute speakers used during the wartime campaigns. The Fair Price Committee of the state will publish daily a price list of all stable articles and the women will be asked to carefully study these each day. These lists will be sent by the department of justice. Mrs. Arthur M. Comley will act as vice chairman of the Fair Price Committee.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Feb. 28.—(Special)—Bridgeport women have joined hands with their sisters in every big city in the country to try and combat the H. C. L. As a result at a meeting of prominent women in this city an organization has been formed, the object being to educate the women of Bridgeport in the manner of buying on the budget plan and thereby lowering the costs of foodstuffs and stable articles in general.

Weekly gatherings are planned at the city Food Hut, at which time, current prices and stable foods will be the topic of discussion. A weekly menu of nourishing foods will be

Yes, Sometimes The News, Even, Makes Mistakes

On Thursday the Evening News published a story to the effect that the supreme court of the state had rendered a decision to the effect that the district court of this county had been upheld in granting an injunction against the MacThwaite Oil and Gas Company, prohibiting them from raising their rates from 25c to 35c per thousand for gas.

The article would indicate that the rates were raised arbitrarily, that the mayor of the city brought suit in the district court for an injunction restraining them from making the raise, that the district court sustained the mayor's suit, that the gas company appealed to the supreme court and that the supreme court finally decided in favor of the mayor and upholding the district court.

The fact is that the rates were not arbitrarily raised. The corporation commission, it appears, granted the raise after hearing all the evidence from both sides. It also appears that the rates are still lower than the great majority of the cities in the state and the service better than in most of them.

It furthermore appears that it was not an injunction suit at all, which the supreme court passed upon, and that the decision in no way makes it incumbent upon the company to revert back to the old rate of 25c per thousand. This is explained in another article, signed by the gas company's attorneys.

Short of help, crippled and without adequate means at hands to get the facts, it appears that the News was imposed upon and given a story that was biased, one-sided and without very much foundation in fact. The News has no interest in courting the favor of the gas company; it has no man connected with it who is a candidate for office; it is not courting the favor of any judge or court; it has no interest whatever in any law firm and it is afraid of nobody. For this reason it makes bold to admit that it was imposed upon and takes advantage of the first opportunity to correct a false impression.

Marriage Licenses
The matrimonial fever took a jump this morning, while the divorce mill, as an offset, came to a complete standstill. There were three licenses issued today, as follows:

E. P. Perkins, aged 26, Shawnee; to Miss Vinita Tucker, aged 21, of Ada.
Millard Ford, aged 23, of Ada, to Miss May Ford, aged 19, also of Ada.
Walter Berry, aged 35, of Konawa to Mrs. Polly Carr, aged 25 of the same city. This ceremony was performed in the office of the district clerk at 11:30 this morning, Justice H. J. Brown, officiating.

Special Meeting Monday Night American Legion

There will be a special meeting of the American Legion in the City Hall on Monday night, March 1. Two fast boxing matches are staged which promise to be a very interesting feature of the evening. These boxing contests are given to encourage more interest in clean sports and athletics.

All the members are urged to be present as parts will be arranged for the Legion Minstrel. If members know any good singer or dancer who is not already a member of the American Legion and is eligible to join, urge him to come as arrangements can be made for joining the Legion at the meeting on Monday night.

GASOLINE EXPLODES CAUSING FIRE ALARM

The fire boys responded this morning about 9:30 to a fire alarm turned in from the home of Morton Lancaster on 25th and Cherry. It seems that Mrs. Lancaster was starting a fire with the aid of gasoline in one of the stoves when the gasoline exploded causing the room to catch fire. But the quickness of the fire boys in responding to the fire alarm prevented any damage from being done, when a more serious fire would have been the result.

AN ALLEN COMPANY
SELLS GOOD LEASE

The Allen-Homa Oil Co., has sold their lease of 130 acres in 33-5-8 to the Homa-Okl. Co. The lease already has two small producing wells and it is understood that others will be drilled by the purchasing company.

The Allen-Homa Company is composed of John Lee, Frank Smith, John Harmon and Earl Willoughby, of Allen, and Judge Orel Busby of Ada. This company has other property in the Allen field which it expects to begin operations on at an early date.

Another deal of importance in oil circles is the sale of the Allen Refinery to the Universal Petroleum Co. The Universal owns 120 acres in 35-5-8E and 34-5-8E and purpose to begin drilling on the same at once.

Eighth Sermon on Revelation
"The Woman and the Dragon"

This woman was clothed with the Sun, had the moon under her feet, and a crown of twelve stars on her head. She was driven into the wilderness where she was nourished for a time, times, and half a time. Who or what is this woman?

The dragon was about to devour the woman's child as soon as it was born. He was a great red dragon with seven heads and ten horns. Who was he?

SWEATS AND ASTHMA

Got rid of it all and gained 12 pounds in 3 months.

"I suffered with bronchial asthma and catarrh of the stomach and bowels. My throat would close up so I could hardly breathe. Coughed all day and coughed so I could not lie down at night. There was such a gurgling in my bronchial tubes it would keep my wife awake. I had night sweats so badly I would have to change night clothes three times a night."

"I commenced using Milk's Emulsion 3 months ago, and I am now feeling fine. Have no night sweats, no bronchial asthma, no stomach trouble, and have gained 12½ pounds."—A. J. Burkholder 36 Florence St., Bradford, Pa.

Give Milk's Emulsion a chance to relieve—perhaps to conquer—your asthma. It has quickly succeeded for others. It costs nothing to try.

Milk's Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and purgatives. It promotes appetite and quickens the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milk's Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in restoring and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk's Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use as directed with directions and if not satisfied with the results your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c. and $1.20 per bottle. The Milk's Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

SAVE REDWOODS OF CALIFORNIA

NATURE LOVERS FROM MANY PARTS IN MOVE TO STOP
DESTRUCTION BY LUM-BER INTERESTS.

By the Associated Press

SAN BARNARDINO, Cal., Feb. 27
—Plans to save the great redwood groves up in northern California from destruction threatened by lumbering interests were taken up by nature lovers from many parts of the country called to a conference here today by the "Save the Redwoods League."

It is the aim of the league to secure a belt of the finest redwood timber bordering the highway in Humboldt county, northern California, in the hope that this area may be made a State Park. Plans are also being formulated to obtain a considerable body of the most typical primitive redwood forest known for the purpose of a National Redwood Park.

Recent extension of the California highway system through Humboldt County has made the magnificent redwood forests of the northern coast easily accessible to the lovers of nature, to the tourist and to important industries dependent upon forest products. This extended use of the highway coming at a time of unusual activity following the war, it is said, has brought a sudden understanding of the value and interest of these forests as unique wonders of nature. Attention has also been called to the imminence of their disappearance before the great demand for lumber.

forests of America as natural objects of extraordinary interest as well as of economic importance, and for the purpose of bringing into unity of action all interests concerned with the movement to pre-

Plans of the league involve both the establishment of state and national redwood parks. Determinaparticularly areas to be selected for park purposes will be based upon carefully prepared report furnished by the Committee on Redwoods Investigation, including, it is said, the most competent authorities in America.

The committee appointed to direct the campaign for a National Redwood Park in headed by Stephen T. Mather, director of National Parks.

Since the initiation of the campaign for preservation of park areas in the northern forests rapid advance has been made toward attaining the objects of the League.
Through the efforts of citizens of Humboldt County and through private contributions it has been possible to secure a number of tracts along the highway upon which lumbering operations were beginning.

Prof. Harold C. Bryant, curator of the museum of vertebrate zoolo-

"Happy" Klark Gives News Man His Smile Recipe

Why does "Happy" Klark who is coming to the Liberty next week with his own show, always wear a smile that won't rub off?

Is it possible that he never had any sorrows or misfortunes?

At any rate it's a fact that he is always smiling. In an interview with a News reporter this morning this is the recipe he gave:

"My name is H. K., a name that was given me when I was a youngster at school, for the very good reason that I was always happy, and the name has followed me throughout my theatrical career.

"Why do I always wear a smile and always appear happy? Just because I love my profession, and everybody, and the world at large."

"Happy" says "It's easy enough to be happy when life flows along like a song, but the man worth while is the man who can smile, when everything goes dead wrong." (And I can't do it.)

"Is it the way I eat, or exercise? I guess not. I eat very little, and my only exercise consists in using my brain to create something that will make my audiences fairly shake their sides with laughter and approval.

"Happy" Klark

"Who loves a grouch? How awful it must be to rise in the morning and be so cross that your wife or friend is afraid to approach you before you have had your breakfast for fear you will tear their heads off. If you are that way, there is something wrong with you. You won't be successful, nor will you be liked. If you are that way, assume a pleasant disposition, do a little acting if necessary, for your own benefit and for the benefit of your friends.

"Did I ever have anything to make me sad? Oh yes, my mother-in-law is dead.

"Be the best liked man in town and smile, smile, smile."

That's all he said, but he said it with a twinkle in his eye and a smile that reached from ear to ear.

"Happy" was so full of his subject that we asked him a few questions about himself. He has just gone into business for himself, organized his company here this week and naturally has a warm spot in his heart for Ada. Not only that but he is going to make Ada every season with his own big show and is going to advertise Ada wherever he goes.

He was born in West Point, Georgia, in 1888 and started life as a printer's "devil", taking a hankering for the show business at the tender age of fifteen. He has worked at all phases of the business and says he like it because he never has any time to idle away. He believes that busy people are the happiest people, and cites the fact that there are fewer actors in the penitentiaries of the country than from any other trade or profession. He believes it is because they never have time to get into very much mischief.

"Happy" has played some of the biggest houses in America and has traveled extensively in Europe during his stage career. He likes the cities, but says towns the size of Ada pleases him better. He indicated, in fact, that he had rather be a good sized fish in a brooklet than to be a minnow in a big lake.
And there is some sense to that argument.

The new "Happy" Klark Musical Comedy is organizing with fifteen people to start with and he claims to have a bunch of the keenest of the keen. He is pretty well known here as he has made the town several times before with Henry Roquemore's Musical Comedy. Roquemore is one of the best liked show men in the business and has numerous friends in Ada. His show was here during the week of the Big Chamber of Commerce Carnival, and the business men have never forgotten the unselfish assistance the Roquemore people rendered them in helping to furnish entertainment and make the carnival a success.

"Happy" is proud of the fact, too,
that he quit the Roquemore company with the best wishes of not only the manager but the whole troupe. In fact he has a letter from Roquemore, written from Sapulpa on the 14th inst., which shows the good fellowship which exists. The letter follows:

"Greetings to whom it may concern:

"The subject of this letter Mr.
Happy Klark has been a member of my company for the past two years, and leaves me with my deepest wishes for a successful career, in the managerial field.

"Mr. Klark is a most competent actor, a hard worker, a congenial gentleman and it was with reluctance that I consented to his leaving me, being pacified only by the knowledge that he was bettering himself in his new venture, of managing his own company.

"I do heartily bespeak for Mr.
Klark to all my friends, their kind consideration, as he deserves and will appreciate any favor shown him

The Utmost in Style--- The Last Word in Quality

Just sparkling with that indefinable word "style," these new suits and Coats are winning enthusiastic praise from all who see them.

The charming straight-line effects are most attractively developed in these smart suits.

The seekers of something new yet practical are more than gratified when they see these splendid coats.

They must be tried on to be appreciated.

You can then note their graceful effects, their stylish swing, and their easy perfect fit—

We are always pleased to show—even though "just looking"—

Let us help you solve the problem of what to wear for Spring.

Ladies' Spring Suits, $35 to $100

Ladies' Spring Coats, $20 to $75
